To whom it may concern,

RE: Sarah Character Reference

I have known Sarah for over 17 years, having met her through community development projects, that we were actively involved in and have since become close family friends.

Throughout our association, I have found Sarah to be a calming, even-tempered and very thoughtful influence on both her children and mine, who have now all grown up to be well-adjusted and very erstwhile individuals. She has a thought-out and enviable balance between discipline, advice-giving and providing the freedom to allow young people to learn and grow.

I commend Sarah's very consistent and trustworthy character, her being a reliable and wise confidante and admire how widely-read, intellectual and worldly she is, all obviously gained from her having lived in many varying cultural settings globally.

I would certainly recommend Sarah as a valuable and trustworthy mentor for any young person and as a parent would gladly entrust my children in her care.

Feel free to contact me should you require any further clarifications.

Kind regards,

Robyn Shamu
