

Dear Au Pair Hiring Agency,

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Maguire. My family and I have had the pleasure of knowing Maguire for many years. She has been a wonderful babysitter for our three young children, currently ages 8, 5 and 3. But she has been so much more than just a babysitter. My oldest daughter looks up to Maguire as a role model-she admires her confidence, her ability to be her authentic self at all times, and her silliness. Serafina thinks of Maguire as her older sister. Together they bake, go ice skating, read books, chit chat, visit the park and so much more.

Our son is a typical, rambunctious five year old boy, and Maguire effortlessly matches his energy. She also has an incredibly calming vibe about her, which Charlie responds to. Maguire is not afraid to splash around in the pool with him, color with him, or sit on the floor and play with him. She can be firm and stern with him when needed, and also graciously redirects his mischief into more positive behavior and activities.

Maguire has helped with our youngest daughter, Lola, since she was an infant. She is an expert diaper changer, baby rocker and stroller pusher. She is not afraid or intimidated by infants and their unique needs, or toddlers and their demands.

Maguire is an exceptional young woman. She is smart and driven, kind and curious, playful and respectful. We trust her completely and feel so lucky to have her influence in our children's lives. She would be an excellent au pair! We envy the family who gets to have her in their lives next.

Best,

Jamie Tyrrell
